

WALKER COUNTY REPUBLICAN PARTY
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING
JANUARY 6, 2015

The executive committee of the Walker County Republican Party met in the Jewel Room at the Chickamauga Public Library on January 6, 2015. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Dean Kelley;

Those in attendance were Chairman Kelley, First Vice Chairman John Carpenter, Second Vice Chairman Nathan Smith by proxy, Treasurer Cathie Kelley and Secretary Judy Grammer.

Chairman Smith announced the January meeting of the Party would be held in the Jewel Room at the Chickamauga Library. They have wi-fi, overhead projector, good seats and tables that are available at no charge.

The ad for the county convention must be published no later than February 27. Chairman Kelley will take the ad to the Messenger on February 20 for our convention to be held on March 14.

Chairman Kelley asked for volunteers and named others for the various committees. Interim convention committee chairmen (pending acceptance of those appointed) are:

Credentials	Alan Painter
Nominating	Tin Painter
Registration	Judy Grammer
Rules	Matt Williamson
Sergeant at Arms	John Carpenter
Hospitality & Arrangements	Cathie Kelley
Resolutions	Nathan Smith

The prayer will be given by Wayne Chasteen and the Pledge of Allegiance will be led by Teddy Harris.

Registration will be $20.00 for those registering after March 9 and $15.00 prior to March 9. Delegates to the County Convention will be allocated as one per precinct plus 1 addition for each 50 votes cast for Romney in the 2012 election.

A key note speaker is being invited along with Senator Jeff Mullis and Representative Steve Tarvin who will talk during the recess for committees to finish their assignments.

Any proposed resolution is to be submitted in writing to the Chairman no later than February 14.

General discussion was held about using coffee urns, projector and food.

Chairman Kelley will ask Glen Wolinsky and Alan Painter to check on using EventBrite for registration on line.
